

Nicole M. Pete

Artist

NicoleMPete@gmail.com

NicolePete.com

Southern California

Background

Nicole Marie Pete is an enrolled member of the Colorado River Indian Tribes (CRIT), located in Parker, AZ. Her maternal clan is Bitter Water (Todí'ch'í'nií) and she was born for the Big Water clan (Tot'soh'nií). At an early age, Nicole's artistic aspirations stemmed from her maternal grandfather, John Scott Sr.'s positive influences as he designed the CRIT logo. She was born and raised in California and continues to live in Southern California. In addition to creating art, she loves playing video games, watching/drawing anime, creating websites, and designing logos/graphics.

Education

California State Fullerton University – May 2012

BA in Business Administration
Option in Computer Information Systems

Computer Information Systems Course(s) include: Web Design; C++ programming; Assembly Language; Java; Telecommunications; Databases (SQL); Basic Networking; Network Security; Wireless Technology; Business Intelligence

Software applications: Microsoft Office Suite, (including Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint, Access, & Visio) Visual Web Developer, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, & Dreamweaver

Key Skills

Graphic Design
Logo Design
T-shirt Design

Book Cover Art
Book Illustration

Current Projects

A children's book, and a book on Navajo clans. Women in Art competition. CRIT Fair & Expo 50th annual logo.

Book Cover

Hoagland, Serra J, and Steven Albert, editors. Wildlife Stewardship on Tribal Lands: Our Place Is in Our Soul. 1st ed., John Hopkins University Press, 2023.

Logos

Western Regional 166/477 Training
Chandler, Arizona
November 2022

Nicole M. Pete

Artist

Colorado River Indian Tribes 49th Annual Fair & Expo
Parker, Arizona
October 2023

“Party with Cherry Cake” banner
November 2023

Art Awards

Upward Gallery – Theme: Sky - Juried art exhibition and competition
First Place
Title: Father Sky, Mother Earth

Upward Gallery – Theme: Family Stories - Juried art exhibition and competition
Second Place
Title: The Passing of Knowledge

Light Space & Time – Juried art exhibition and competition
“Seascapes” Art Exhibition – May 2024
Photography & Digital Special Recognition Artists
Title: Tranquil Underwater Depths

Art Magazine & Interview

Upward Gallery
UPWARD's Quarterly Autumn 2023
International Magazine

Artwork

Provide Colorado River Indian Tribes with Native-themed vector art for use by the CRIT Media department & Manataba Messenger (newspaper)

Books

Fully designed and illustrated 3 book boxed set of children’s books for the CRIT enrolled children of the Colorado River Indian Tribes in each of the 4 CRIT tribal languages of Mohave, Chemehuevi, Hopi, and Navajo
Each box includes: (1) 10 animals, (2) 10 numbers, (3) 10 colors
Distribution date: December 2023

Publication Cover

National Park Service
Hidden Turtle Cover Art
Publication: Indigenous Communities
Digital copy available
10,000 Printed copies to be distributed across the United States
